MEDICAL EXPENSES
Medical Expenses are eligible for the tax credit once they EXCEED 3% of your net income. Example: You earn $50,000 then the first 3% = $1,500 is not deductible. So, if you have $1,300 in medical expenses, it is NOT deductible at all. IF, you have $1,800 in medical expenses, then only $300 of that is deductible. TIP: MEDICAL RECEIPTS MUST TOTAL ONE YEAR BACK, AS LONG AS IT ENDS IN THE YEAR YOU FILE.
